[3] Waste (WS)

[3.3] Organic Waste Treatment

Example of Organic Waste Treatment (University of Thi-qar)

The University of Thi-Qar campuses have several canteens and cafés. They produce organic waste. The service department of Thi-Qar University manages this type of waste by collecting them in special containers and deliver them every day to the municipality of the town to process them. The University of Thi-Qar is planning to treat these organic waste by constructing a small project.
